Dear Parents/Guardians:

As you know, a winter weather system is predicted to work its way through our area this weekend. IF we have to cancel school due to weather on Monday, NJ-SP will utilize an eLearning day. We have been approved for two (2) eLearning days this year. One of those days has been set-aside for Monday, February 18.

In the event that we use an eLearning day Monday, a separate school messenger will be sent out Monday morning reminding you of this, and reminding you how your child will participate in the eLearning day. We have also included eLearning information on the back of this letter.

While we are confident in the prep work that students and teachers have put into practicing for our first eLearning Day, we do anticipate some glitches. Please understand, no student will be penalized for glitches and will have an opportunity to turn in the assignment(s) given.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Annette Zupin'.

Dr. Annette Zupin
Superintendent
